TIME is an ASEAN-focused telecommunications provider that connects businesses and homes by coupling the most capable people with the latest technologies available.

Based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, we offer a full suite of connectivity solutions that include wholesale bandwidth, private leased lines, dedicated Internet, international connectivity and data centres to operators and enterprises across the Asia-Pacific region.

Our Cross Peninsular Cable System (CPCS™) nationwide fibre optic network is the backbone of TIME, anchoring our core Malaysian fixed-line business.

Fully future-proof, the CPCS™ delivers exceptional availability, speed and reliability. With it, we offer Malaysia's fastest home broadband service at speeds of up to 100Mbps.

Outside Malaysia, the stakes we own in international submarine cable assets enable us to provide seamless connectivity between a rapidly developing Southeast Asia and the rest of the world.

A crucial component of our international submarine cable assets is a fully owned, full-fledged Cable Landing Station, acting as a termination hub for seamless international and domestic connectivity.

We also offer international-class storage and value-added ancillary services through our award-winning, carrier-neutral data centre facilities.

Building on our facilities in Malaysia and Singapore, we count data centre presence in Hong Kong, Thailand and Vietnam through strategic alliances with our co-location partners.

We have been publicly traded in Malaysia since 2001 and have been doing business in Asia for nearly three decades. In the process, we have built an enviable reputation for high-performance solutions, product innovation and customer commitment.

INVESTING IN GROWTH

Dear Shareholders,

I am pleased to report that the TIME Group performed well in 2014 amidst a weaker global economic environment that was hurt by weaker energy and commodity industries, and a volatile currency market.

Our domestic fixed-line, global bandwidth and data centre businesses anchored our performance during the year, despite intense competition from both existing and new industry players.

The Group placed a strong focus on advancing our regional ambitions in 2014.

We took a step further outside of Malaysia by expanding our global network footprint with new international submarine cable investments.

These investments, while capital intensive, will underpin our future growth and help us realise our goal of becoming a viable gateway between Asia and the rest of the world.

As shareholders are aware, our larger aim is to connect Asia to the rest of the world and in turn, connect the world to Asia. These are plans we have outlined in the past, which we call our 'Asia > World > Asia' strategy.

Industry Overview

International bandwidth demand in ASEAN is expected to expand at a Compounded Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of more than 35% up to 2020. This will be driven by rising Internet access and penetration, according to telecommunications market research and consulting firm Telegeography.

We believe we are well positioned to participate in this development with our regional expansion plans, despite the challenges borne by the current weak global economic environment.

On the global front, we were ahead of the industry in 2014 with our international submarine cable investments, though we also recognise the competition from other new cable systems.

Locally, intense price competition will continue to provide headwinds, but we see this as a healthy test for innovative growth strategies.

In particular, we are very supportive of the government's call for higher nationwide broadband penetration by introducing more affordable broadband charges.

We expect that this initiative will drive increased broadband adoption among Malaysians in the lower-income bracket, and we will do what we can to help meet the nation's goals of more broadband for everyone.

Financial Results

In the financial year ended 31 December 2014, Group operating profit was 22% higher at RM143.86 million from RM118.03 million a year ago.

Revenue rose 9% year-on-year to RM596.3 million in 2014, while core pre-tax profit gained 24% to RM143.9 million.

These advancements were driven mainly by higher data revenue from global bandwidth and data centre sales.

Overall, we recorded improvements across all our key business segments of Wholesale, Enterprise, and SME & Consumer.

Meanwhile, our voice business remained subdued, in-line with industry trends, due to lower voice traffic.

In spite of the challenging environment, we remained committed to rewarding our shareholders.

We declared, for the first time in our history, an interim dividend from internally generated funds of 5.6 sen per share, in line with our dividend policy of paying up to 25% of our normalised profit after tax.

We expect continued progress as we further unlock the potential from cross-selling the innovative combinations of our fixed-line, data centre and global bandwidth businesses.

Outlook and Prospects

We will strive to build on the momentum we gained in 2014 to further progress our regional ambitions.

Our international submarine cable investments will anchor our plan to expand our global network footprint and connectivity.

We will continue to seek out strategic acquisitions, partnerships and joint ventures in the ASEAN region as part of our aim to strengthen our foothold in this part of the world.

While our plans will be robust, strategic and risk-managed, short-term profitability may be sacrificed for future growth and sustainability. Margins, for example, might be compressed as we pursue these growth opportunities.

In Malaysia, we will continue to expand our reach, extending our presence to new territories and improving our presence in the retail segment.

As we work on realising our goals, we will maintain our ongoing efforts to address the current business challenges we face.

Intense competition from both existing and new players amid the current weaker economic environment will persist.

It is therefore important that we not become complacent and continue with efforts to extract further efficiency gains across the Group.

Changes in Board Composition

Rossana Rashidi, who served as our Non-Independent Executive Director and Deputy Chief Executive Officer since 2012 resigned in July 2014.

On behalf of the Board, I thank her for her dedication and all her contributions towards driving the Group forward, especially in Malaysia.

Acknowledgements

Before I conclude, I welcome the return of Dato' Sri Dr. Halim Shafie to our regulatory body, The Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (MCMC), as Chairman, a post he served from April 2006 until May 2009.

With his vast experience and strong business acumen, I am confident that Dato' Sri Dr. Halim Shafie will propel the industry even further, not only in terms of competitiveness, but also good governance.

In addition, I thank Dato' Mohamed Sharil Tarmizi for all of his dedication and hard work when helming MCMC during the past three years.

I thank you, our shareholders, for your continued support throughout the years.

I am also grateful for the contributions of my fellow Board members towards their good governance and stewardship of our Group of companies.

TIME's continued success depends on the strength of its people and I thank our staff at all levels of TIME for their tireless dedication and commitment.

TIME has continued to strive to expand its reach both locally and regionally, and I am confident we will continue our ambitious pace going forward.

ABDUL KADIR MD KASSIM
Chairman

ONWARDS AND UPWARDS

We did well to sustain our performance and register improvements on all business fronts in 2014.

The business processes and teams we have assembled over the years helped us achieve significant advances both at home and abroad.

Competition abounded, yes, but we addressed it positively and proactively. We used the challenges we faced to instead improve, innovate and further acquire market share.

Setting the Pace Locally

We enhanced our Cross Peninsular Cable System (CPCS™) during the year, after having transformed it into a 100% next-generation IPIMPLS network in 2013.

Today, the CPCS™ is equipped with 100Gbps-coherent technology, making us among the first few network providers in Malaysia to wholly adopt this technology early, thereby future-proofing an already resilient network.

With our CPCS™ 100Gbps ready and our infrastructure ever-expanding, we are at the forefront of industry-wide network modernisation initiatives.

We also continued to widen our reach in the country, extending our presence in the retail segment and in the process, making our high-speed connections even more broadly available in the country.

As a result, our customers readily attest to a level of performance, resilience and reliability that few other operators are able to offer and commit to.

Making Headway Regionally

The regional advances we made during the year will take us even closer to realising our aspirations of becoming the 'carrier's carrier' in the Asia-Pacific region.

On the international front, we participated in two submarine cable consortiums, namely the Trans-Pacific FASTER and the Asia-Africa-Europe 1 (AAE-1).

The FASTER cable system will link Japan and North America, and is expected to extend our intra-Asia capacity further when our Asia Pacific Gateway (APG), which will connect Southeast Asia to Japan, is completed in 2016.

Our investment in FASTER marks our second submarine cable project in partnership with Google, and builds on the strength and success of our previous investment in the Unity Cable System back in 2008.

In turn, AAE-1 will link Asia and Europe via the Middle East. Construction of this high-capacity cable system began in 2014 and is targeted for launch by 2016.

With this added capacity, our current and potential customer markets in Indochina and ASEAN grew significantly during the year. In addition, we expanded our Point-of-Presence (PoP) in Southeast Asia's largest economy - Indonesia.

Scoring Big with Our Data Centre Business

AIMS was not only recognised for the quality and services we provided, we also expanded our customer base and presence during the year.

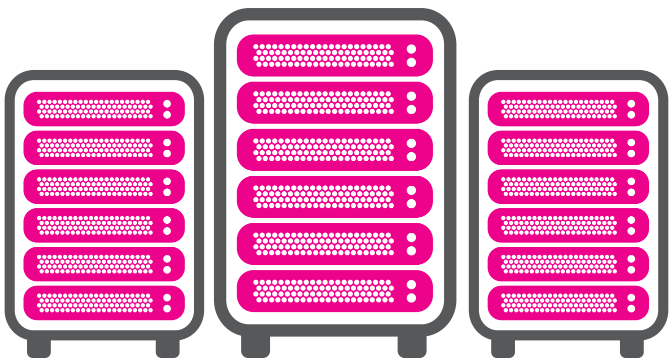
Our top-notch offerings garnered new customers in 2014, ranging from Financial Services Institutions to Malaysia's leading Oil & Gas companies.

We heeded customer demands and set up data centre presence in Singapore, and gave our customers valuable flexibility in their key markets, further building our already considerable customer goodwill.

We secured Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) certification in 2014, making us the third data centre in Malaysia to receive global compliance recognition for payment security.

We also won the 2014 Frost & Sullivan Malaysia Data Center Service Provider of the Year award recognising the tireless effort of our people and AIMS' achievements during the year.

Moving forward, AIMS plans to develop and launch new solution suites and value-added services to further augment its pure data centre services. These will include enhanced Cloud solutions, web performance and high-end security solutions.



Segment Review

Wholesale

We grew sales last year despite intense competition and price erosion in the wholesale arena as our responsiveness to market prices helped us expand share in a competitive environment.

The synergistic portfolio within our subsidiary businesses saw us achieve greater IP transit sales, while the close relationships cultivated with our customers through the years contributed to this growth.

We expect that demand for Wholesale data will continue to be strong, although price erosion and cost saving initiatives by the Global Service Providers (GSPs) might initially impact revenues.

We are confident that our growth in this segment remains intact, with the improvement in our business operations and network expansion.

With mobile operators resuming network expansion initiatives to cater to the surge in data demand, we also see opportunities to support them with the critical backhaul access they require.

Enterprise

Despite stiff competition, we managed to increase our market share to include new customers across all our Enterprise verticals.

In addition to meeting customer requirements with high standards of service, the quality of our products and superior account management were among our biggest competitive advantages.

Our expanding customer base demonstrated our ability to meet their stringent requirements with a more resilient network, quick customer service deployment and flexible offerings.

As Malaysia further develops, there will be increasing demand for the type of technologically advanced solutions TIME is able to offer.

We recognise this vast potential, and we plan to meet challenges head-on, by not only doing things correctly, but also pushing the envelope in performance, innovation and good old-fashioned hard work and dedication.

SME & Consumer

Our SME & Consumer segment was the star performer in 2014, registering double-digit percentage growth, driven mainly by the superior quality and competitive prices of our products and services.

Customers recognise TIME's appeals of value, quality and speed, especially with TIME Fibre 100Mbps Home Broadband™ - a key differentiator between us and our competitors.

Distribution channels doubled in 2014 in line with the expansion of our coverage footprint. Coupled with the consistency in product quality, we gained further traction in customer confidence, trust and loyalty.

Increased process automations, including service provisioning, have enabled us to quickly and seamlessly deliver services to our customers. These have led to enhanced customer experience, in addition to better optimisation of our resources.

During the year, we developed a Central Data Repository system that provides intelligent analytics on subscriber usage patterns and demands, leading to more targeted initiatives and improved customer acquisition.

Our partnership with Astro Malaysia also performed well in 2014; revenue grew 19% year-on-year, while EBITDA turned positive.

Expanding our reach was a deliverable we met almost daily over the course of the year.

We adopted the same approach with the rollout of higher speeds, but we did not stop there. We also introduced free Internet calls for Triple-Play customers, thereby ending the year as provider of one of the most-desired Internet packages in Malaysia.

At this pace, we are confident that TIME will emerge a more prominent player in the SME and residential sectors within the next few years.

Operational Excellence

During the year, we consolidated all our business units within a single and centralised Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) environment, yielding significant benefits.

- It gave us better operational management and control.
- It forced us to work in a more efficient and streamlined way.
- Information was centralised in one focal area, giving us easier and faster data access and recall.

The ERP solution was not the only change from an operational perspective.

We implemented a new fraud management and revenue assurance system during the year, giving us marked improvements in our fraud monitoring capabilities. As a result, detection and more importantly, fraud prevention, improved.

These initiatives evidence our aim of consistently providing high-quality, high-performance and secure solutions to support our business and operations.

Moving forward, 'Lean Six Sigma' programs will be introduced Group-wide, operational efficiency and effectiveness.

We expect that these programs will reduce operational wastages, ultimately reducing the high cost of low performance.

Growing Our People

Our people remain the Company's most important asset.

To further strengthen their capabilities, we focused on four key areas during the year – the Network, Sales, Products and Customer-facing groups – giving them fresh insights, motivations and skills to perform their duties at a higher level.

In turn, high achievers were recognised and rewarded through the Company's Performance Share Grant Scheme, resulting in improved retention rates among our top performers.

In 2014, we also launched the TIME Management Associate Program, aimed at nurturing the future leaders of the business.

To ensure our long-term growth and success, we will continue to invest in improving the abilities, satisfaction and performance of our employees.

We will expand the depth and breadth of our HR schemes to further build on the performance and morale of our people.

- Policies and practices will be further strengthened.
- Individual skills and abilities will be identified and further improved.
- Top performers and high achievers will be rewarded.
- Work-life balance will continue to be important.

These are just a few of our key initiatives for the months and years ahead, setting up TIME to become an employer of choice.

Responsible Environmentally and Socially

We remain committed to our shareholders, employees and all other stakeholders in the environment we operate.

Recognising our corporate responsibilities as a member of the communities and regions we work and live in, we encourage our employees to remain involved in philanthropic activities, such as the TIME CherryTree Project.

The TIME CherryTree Project is guided by four main pillars, namely Social Betterment, Relief & Humanitarian Aid, Community Building and Environment Watch for all the Group's Corporate Social Responsibility activities.

In 2014, we also initiated a continuous and long-term green initiative program, which began with transforming our Glenmarie HQ into a certified green building, and which will expand to encompass all our commercial real estate over the long-term.

The aim is to achieve cost savings through reduced energy and water consumption, with the ultimate goal being the preservation of natural resources.

As a Group, we at TIME believe in operating as a good corporate citizen to create real, sustainable and positive change for the greater good, changes that will benefit our business, society as well as the ecosystem we operate in.

The Board is committed to ensuring the highest standards of corporate governance in the Group as articulated in the eight (8) principles and recommendations of the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2012 (the "Code") and also continually strives to enhance the effectiveness of the Board by improving the Board of Directors' practices and processes. The Group has adopted significant recommendations of the Code and the Board is continuously reviewing the Group's corporate governance practices and will make appropriate adjustments to reflect its position as a good corporate citizen. The key objective is to adopt the substance behind good corporate governance and not merely the form, with the aim of ensuring Board effectiveness in enhancing shareholders' value.

The Board views corporate governance as synonymous with four key concepts of the Group; namely transparency, integrity and accountability as well as corporate performance. The Group adopts these key concepts in the Group's operation and management and consciously applies the principles and recommendations of the Code and other global standards.

The Board is pleased to provide the following statement which outlines how the Group has applied the principles and recommendations set out in the Code throughout the financial year ended 31 December 2014.

PRINCIPLES STATEMENT

A. Directors

The Board

An effective Board that leads and controls the Group is vital in the stewardship of its direction and operations and ultimately the enhancement of long-term shareholder value. Thus, the Board is responsible for the strategic direction, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals. All Directors are from diverse professional backgrounds with a wide range of business, technical and financial experience. The profile of each Director is presented from pages 19 to 22.

The diversity of the Directors' background is pivotal to provide depth and specific experience and perspective to the leadership of the Group, as needed by the Group's business which is highly regulated and supervised.

In discharging its stewardship, the Board has adopted a formal schedule of matters which include:

- reviewing and adopting a strategic plan for the Company;
- overseeing the conduct of the Company's businesses;
- identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate internal controls and mitigation measures;
- establishing a succession plan;
- overseeing the development and implementation of a shareholder communication policy for the Company; and
- reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the management information and internal controls system of the Company and Group.

The Board Charter which clearly sets out the role and responsibilities of the Board and the Board Committees as well as the processes and procedures for convening their meetings is accessible on the Company's corporate website. It serves as a reference and primary induction literature providing prospective and existing Board members and Management insight into fiduciary and leadership functions of the Directors.

The Board will review its charter regularly to keep it up to date with changes in regulations and best practices and to ensure its effectiveness and relevance to the Board's objectives.

Additionally, the Board adheres to the Code of Ethics for Directors issued by the Companies Commission of Malaysia.

Board Balance

There were seven (7) Board members in 2014, comprising one (1) Non-Independent Non-Executive Chairman ("Chairman"), three (3) Independent Non-Executive Directors, one (1) Non-Independent Executive Director and two (2) Non-Independent Non-Executive Directors. None of the Independent Directors have served the Board for a cumulative term of 9 years.

The Board's composition at the end of year 2014 is in line with paragraph 15.02 of the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities"). The composition of the Board reflects an impressive spectrum of experiences and skills with a mix of legal, financial, technical and business experience which are relevant and vital to the direction and management of the Group. The Board is suitably equipped with members that possess significant experience in the telecommunication industry.

The Board is supportive of the gender boardroom diversity recommended by the Code.

The roles and responsibilities of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") are separated with clear distinctions between them. The Chairman leads the Board and is responsible to ensure the effective and smooth interaction of the overall Board and individual Directors, both within and outside the Boardroom as well as driving the discussion toward consensus and to achieve closure in every discussion. The CEO is responsible for developing and implementing strategy of the Group, reflecting long term objectives as well as priorities established by the Board. The CEO assumes full responsibility and accountability to the Board for all aspects of the Company operations and performance. He also represents the Company to major customers, employees, suppliers and professional associations.

The Non-Executive Directors contribute significantly in areas such as policy and strategy, performance monitoring, allocation of resources as well as improving governance and control. The Independent Directors play pivotal roles towards ensuring that the business strategies of the Group and any other matters or agendas discussed are properly and fully deliberated and examined with a view to protect the interests of shareholders and the stakeholders of the Group. They provide independent and impartial views in determining the final decisions taken or endorsed by the Board.

Meetings

The Board meets regularly. In addition to the scheduled meetings, the Board also convenes special meetings when urgent and important decisions need to be taken between scheduled meetings. During the financial year ended 31 December 2014, the Board met 8 times.

All meeting dates are determined and fixed yearly in advance so that every director is able to schedule their time effectively. For all the meetings, due notices were given and structured formal agenda and papers relating to the agenda items were forwarded to all the Board members for their perusal prior to and in most cases, in advance of the date of each meeting.

All proceedings of the meetings were properly minuted and filed. The minutes are circulated to each and every Board member for their perusal and comments prior to the confirmation of the minutes at the commencement of the next Board meeting. The members may request for clarification or raise comments on the minutes before they are confirmed.

These financial statements are presented in Ringgit Malaysia ("RM"), which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information is presented in RM and has been rounded to the nearest thousand, unless otherwise stated.

(d) Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with MFRSs requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

There are no significant areas of estimation uncertainty and critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have significant effect on the amount recognised in the financial statements other than as disclosed in Note 4 – determination of recoverable amount for goodwill assessment and Note 7 – recognition of deferred tax assets.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these financial statements and have been applied consistently by the Group entities, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Basis of consolidation

(i) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities, including structured entities, controlled by the Company. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

Control exists when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

Potential voting rights are considered when assessing control only when such rights are substantive.

The Group also considers it has de facto power over an investee when, despite not having the majority of voting rights, it has the current ability to direct the activities of the investee that significantly affect the investee's return.

Investments in subsidiaries are measured in the Company's statement of financial position at cost less any impairment losses unless the investment is held for sale or distribution. The cost of investments includes transaction costs.

(ii) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method from the acquisition date, which is the date on which control is transferred to the Group.

For new acquisitions, the Group measures the cost of goodwill at the acquisition date as:

- the fair value of the consideration transferred, plus
- the recognised amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree; plus
- if the business combination is achieved in stages, the fair value of the existing equity interest in the acquiree; less
- the net recognised amount (generally fair value) of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

When the excess is negative, a bargain purchase gain is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

For each business combination, the Group elects whether it measures the non-controlling interests in the acquiree either at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets at the acquisition date.

Transaction costs, other than those associated with the issue of debt or equity securities, that the Group incurs in connection with a business combination are expensed as incurred.

(iii) Loss of control

Upon the loss of control of a subsidiary, the Group derecognises the assets and liabilities of the former subsidiary, any non-controlling interests and the other components of equity related to the former subsidiary. Any surplus or deficit arising on the loss of control is recognised in profit or loss. If the Group retains any interest in the former subsidiary, then such interest is measured at fair value at the date that control is lost. Subsequently it is accounted for as an equity-accounted investee or as an available-for-sale financial asset depending on the level of influence retained.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(iv) Non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interests at the end of the reporting period, being the equity in a subsidiary not attributable directly or indirectly to the equity holders of the Company, are presented in the consolidated statements of financial position and statement of changes in equity within equity, separately from equity attributable to the owners of the Company. Non-controlling interests in the results of the Group is presented in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income as an allocation of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income for the year between non-controlling interests and owners of the Company.

(v) Transactions eliminated on consolidation

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

(b) Foreign currency

(i) Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated to the respective functional currencies of the Group entities at exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the end of the reporting period are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at that date.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are not retranslated at the end of the reporting date, except for those that are measured at fair value are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at the date that the fair value was determined.

Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognised in profit or loss, except for differences arising on the retranslation of available-for-sale equity instruments or a financial instrument designated as a hedge of currency risk, which are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(ii) Operations denominated in functional currencies other than Ringgit Malaysia

The assets and liabilities of operations denominated in functional currencies other than RM, including goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on acquisition, are translated to RM at exchange rates at the end of the reporting period.

Foreign currency differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the foreign currency translation reserve ("FCTR") in equity. However, if the operation is a non-wholly-owned subsidiary, then the relevant proportionate share of the translation difference is allocated to the non-controlling interests. When a foreign operation is disposed such that control, significant influence or joint control is lost, the cumulative amount in the FCTR related to that foreign operation is reclassified to profit or loss on disposal.

When the Group disposes of only part of its interest in a subsidiary that includes a foreign operation, the relevant proportion of the cumulative amount is reattributed to non-controlling interests. When the Group disposes of only part of its investment in an associate or joint venture that includes a foreign operation while retaining significant influence or joint control, the relevant proportion of the cumulative amount is reclassified to profit or loss.

In the consolidated financial statements, when settlement of a monetary item receivable from or payable to a foreign operation is neither planned nor likely in the foreseeable future, foreign exchange gains and losses arising from such a monetary item are considered to form part of a net investment in a foreign operation and are recognised in other comprehensive income, and are presented in the FCTR in equity.

(c) Financial instruments

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

A financial asset or a financial liability is recognised in the statement of financial position when, and only when, the Group or the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial instrument is recognised initially, at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial instrument not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of the financial instrument.

An embedded derivative is recognised separately from the host contract and accounted for as a derivative if, and only if, it is not closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host contract and the host contract is not categorised as fair value through profit or loss. The host contract, in the event an embedded derivative is recognised separately, is accounted for in accordance with policy applicable to the nature of the host contract.

(ii) Financial instrument categories and subsequent measurement

The Group and the Company categorise financial instruments as follows:

Financial assets

(a) Financial assets at fair value through profit and loss

Fair value through profit and loss category comprises financial assets that are held for trading, including derivatives (except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or designated as effective hedging instrument) or financial assets that are specifically designated into this category upon initial recognition.

Derivatives that are linked to and must be settled by delivery of unquoted equity instruments whose fair values cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost.

Financial assets categorised as fair value through profit and loss are subsequently measured at their fair values with the gain or loss recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Held-to-maturity investments

Held-to-maturity investments category comprises debt instruments that are quoted in an active market and where the Group or the Company has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity.

Financial assets categorised as held-to-maturity investments are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(c) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables category comprises debt instruments that are not quoted in an active market.

Financial assets categorised as loans and receivables are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(c) Financial instruments (continued)

(ii) Financial instrument categories and subsequent measurement (continued)

(d) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale category comprises investment in equity and debt securities instruments that are not held for trading.

Investments in equity instruments that do not have a quoted market price in an active market and whose fair value cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost. Other financial assets categorised as available-for-sale are subsequently measured at their fair values with the gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income, except for impairment losses, foreign exchange gains and losses arising from monetary items and gains and losses of hedged items attributable to hedge risks of fair value hedges which are recognised in profit or loss. On de-recognition, the cumulative gain or loss recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity into profit or loss. Interest calculated for a debt instrument using the effective interest method is recognised in profit or loss.

All financial assets, except for those measured at fair value through profit or loss, are subject to review for impairment (see Note 2(h)(i)).

Financial liabilities

All financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost other than those categorised as fair value through profit or loss.

Fair value through profit or loss category comprises financial liabilities that are derivatives (except for a derivative that is a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument) or financial liabilities that are specifically designated into this category upon initial recognition.

Derivatives that are linked to and must be settled by delivery of unquoted equity instruments whose fair values cannot be reliably measured are measured at cost.

Financial liabilities categorised as fair value through profit or loss are subsequently measured at their fair values with the gain or loss recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Financial guarantee contracts

A financial guarantee contract is a contract that requires the issuer to make specified payments to reimburse the holder for a loss it incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the original or modified terms of a debt instrument.

Fair value arising from financial guarantee contracts are classified as deferred income and are amortised to profit or loss using a straight-line method over the contractual period or, when there is no specified contractual period, recognised in profit or loss upon discharge of the guarantee. When settlement of a financial guarantee contract becomes probable, an estimate of the obligation is made. If the carrying value of the financial guarantee contract is lower than the obligation, the carrying value is adjusted to the obligation amount and accounted for as a provision.

(iv) Derecognition

A financial asset or part of it is derecognised when, and only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or the financial asset is transferred to another party without retaining control or substantially transferring all risk and rewards of the asset. On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received (including any new asset obtained less any new liability assumed) and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in equity is recognised in the profit or loss.

A financial liability or a part of it is derecognised when, and only when, the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires. On derecognition of a financial liability, the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss.

(d) Property, plant and equipment

(i) Recognition and measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The telecommunications network is acquired or constructed under the telecommunications license (which was granted by the Ministry of Information, Communication and Culture). Items of telecommunications network are stated at cost less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

Cost includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset and any other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to working condition for its intended use, and the costs of dismantling and removing the items and restoring the site on which they are located.

The cost of self-constructed assets also include the cost of materials and direct labour. For qualifying assets, borrowing costs are capitalised in accordance with the accounting policy on borrowing costs.

Purchased software including development costs that are directly attributable to the design and testing of identifiable and unique software products controlled by the Group that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalised as part of that equipment.

The cost of property, plant and equipment recognised as a result of a business combination is based on fair value at acquisition date. The fair value of property is the estimated amount for which a property could be exchanged between knowledgeable willing parties in an arm's length transaction after proper marketing wherein the parties had each acted knowledgeably, prudently and without compulsion. The fair value of other items of plant and equipment is based on the quoted market prices for similar items when available and replacement cost when appropriate.

When significant parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Gain or loss on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment and are recognised net within "other income" or "other expenses" respectively in profit or loss.

(d) Property, plant and equipment (continued)

(ii) Subsequent costs

The cost of replacing a component of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the component will flow to the Group or the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced component is derecognised to profit or loss. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property, plant and equipment are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

(iii) Depreciation

Depreciation is based on the cost of an asset less its residual value. Significant components of individual assets are assessed, and if a component has a useful life that is different from the remainder of that asset, then that component is depreciated separately.

Depreciation is recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of each component of an item of property, plant and equipment. Leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives unless it is reasonably certain that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term. Leasehold land is depreciated over the shorter of the term of the associated lease or 50 years, being the estimated useful lives, on a straight line basis. Freehold land is not depreciated. Property, plant and equipment under construction are not depreciated until the assets are ready for their intended use.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

• buildings	50 years
• improvements	5-7 years
• office equipment, furniture and fittings	5-7 years
• loose tools	5 years
• computer systems	5 years
• motor vehicles	5 years
• data centre equipment (excluding project management equipment)	5-15 years
• Telecommunications network
- Commissioned network (excluding global bandwidth assets)	3-20 years

Global bandwidth assets, which form part of the Group's telecommunications network are charged to profit or loss over the duration of their respective underlying contracts. For sale of global bandwidth assets that also include the sale of future capacity upgrade entitlements, the proportionate value of the asset's net book value provided shall be taken to profit or loss. Project management equipment, which form part of the Group's data centre equipment are depreciated over the shorter of the duration of their respective underlying contract or its useful lives.

Depreciation method, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at the end of the reporting period and adjusted as appropriate.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(e) Leased assets

(i) Finance lease

Leases in terms of which the Group or the Company assumes substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Upon initial recognition, the leased asset is measured at an amount equal to the lower of its fair value and the present value of the minimum lease payments. Subsequent to initial recognition, the asset is accounted for in accordance with the accounting policy applicable to that asset.

Minimum lease payments made under finance leases are apportioned between the finance expense and the reduction of the outstanding liability. The finance expense is allocated to each period during the lease term so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Contingent lease payments are accounted for by revising the minimum lease payments over the remaining term of the lease when the lease adjustment is confirmed.

Leasehold land which in substance is a finance lease is classified as property, plant and equipment or as investment property if held to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both.

(ii) Operating lease

Leases, where the Group or the Company does not assume substantially all the risks and rewards of the ownership are classified as operating leases and, except for prepaid property interest held under operating lease, the leased assets are not recognised on the statement of financial position.

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease unless another systematic basis is more representative of the time pattern in which economic benefits from the leased asset are consumed. Lease incentives received are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the total lease expense, over the term of the lease. Contingent rentals are charged to profit or loss in the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Leasehold land which in substance is an operating lease is classified as prepaid lease payments.

(f) Intangible assets

Goodwill

Goodwill arises on business combinations is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses (refer to Note 2(h)(ii)).

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, balances and deposits with banks and highly liquid investments which have an insignificant risk of changes in fair value with original maturities of three months or less, and are used by the Group and the Company in the management of their short term commitments. For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents are presented net of bank overdrafts and pledged deposits. Balances and deposits with banks and highly liquid investments are categorised as loans and receivables.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

(h) Impairment

(i) Financial assets

All financial assets (except for investment in subsidiaries) are assessed at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events having an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the asset. Losses expected as a result of future events, no matter how likely, are not recognised. For an investment in an equity instrument, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below its cost is an objective evidence of impairment. If any such objective evidence exists, then the impairment loss of the financial asset is estimated.

An impairment loss in respect of loans and receivables and held-to-maturity investments is recognised in profit or loss and is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account.

An impairment loss in respect of available-for-sale financial assets is recognised in profit or loss and is measured as the difference between the asset's acquisition cost (net of any principal repayment and amortisation) and the asset's current fair value, less any impairment loss previously recognised. Where a decline in the fair value of an available-for-sale financial asset has been recognised in other comprehensive income, the cumulative loss in other comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss.

An impairment loss in respect of an unquoted equity instrument that is carried at cost is recognised in profit or loss and is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset.

Impairment losses recognised in profit or loss for an investment in an equity instrument classified as available-for-sale is not reversed through profit or loss.

If, in a subsequent period, the fair value of a debt instrument increases and the increase can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised in profit or loss, the impairment loss is reversed, to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed what the carrying amount would have been had the impairment not been recognised at the date the impairment is reversed. The amount of the reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Other assets

The carrying amounts of other assets (except for deferred tax asset) are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. For goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives or that are not yet available for use, the recoverable amount is estimated each period at the same time.

For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or cash-generating unit. Subject to an operating segment ceiling test, for the purpose of goodwill impairment testing, cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated are aggregated so that the level at which impairment testing is performed reflects the lowest level at which goodwill is monitored for internal reporting purpose. The goodwill acquired in a business combination, for the purpose of impairment testing, is allocated to the group of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or cash generating unit.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its related cash-generating unit exceeds its estimated recoverable amount.

Impairment losses are recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating units (group of cash-generating units) and then to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets in the cash-generating unit (groups of cash-generating units) on a pro-rata basis.

An impairment loss in respect of goodwill is not reversed. In respect of other assets, impairment losses recognised in prior periods are assessed at the end of each reporting period for any indications that the loss has decreased or no longer exists. An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss has been recognised. Reversals of impairment losses are credited to profit or loss in the financial year in which the reversals are recognised.

(i) Equity instruments

Instruments classified as equity are measured at cost on initial recognition and are not remeasured subsequently.

(i) Issue expenses

Cost directly attributable to the issue of instruments classified as equity are recognised as a deduction from equity.

(ii) Ordinary shares

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

(iii) Distribution of assets to owners of the Company

The Group measures a liability to distribute assets as a dividend to the owners of the Company at the fair value of the assets to be distributed. The carrying amount of the dividend payable is remeasured at each reporting period and at settlement date, with any changes to the carrying amount of the dividend payable is recognised directly in equity as adjustments to the amount of the distribution. On settlement of the transaction, the Group recognises the differences, if any, between the carrying amount of the assets distributed and the carrying amount of the liability in profit or loss.

(j) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations in respect of salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave and sick leave are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided.

A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid under short-term cash bonus if the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

The Group's contributions to the statutory pension funds are charged to profit or loss in the financial year to which they relate. Once the contributions have been paid, the Group has no further payment obligations.

(j) Employee benefits (continued)

(ii) Share-based payment transactions

The grant date fair value of share-based payment granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees unconditionally become entitled to the awards. The amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards for which the related service and non-market vesting conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised as an expense is based on the number of awards that meet the related service and non-market performance conditions at the vesting date.

For share-based payment awards with non-vesting conditions, the grant date fair value of the share-based payment is measured to reflect such conditions and there is no true-up for differences between expected and actual outcomes.

The fair value of the employee share grant is measured using the Monte Carlo simulation model. Measurement inputs include share price on measurement date and expected dividends. For employee share grants issued out of new stock, the share price is further adjusted for effects of dilution. Service and non-market performance conditions attached to the transactions are not taken into account in determining fair value.

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are expensed at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer to those benefits and when the Group recognises costs for a restructuring. If benefits are not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months of the end of the reporting period, then they are discounted.

(k) Provisions

A provision is recognised if, as a result of a past event, the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects the current market assessments of time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as finance costs.

(l) Contingent liabilities

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is not recognised in the statements of financial position and is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events, are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

(m) Revenue and other income

(i) Operating revenue

Operating revenue of the Company consists of management fees. Management fees are recognised when services are rendered.

Revenue of the Group consists of gross billings on telecommunications and information technology related services provided net of discounts and gross invoiced value of goods sold net of discounts and returns.

Revenue for billings is recognised when services are rendered or upon delivery of products and when the risk and rewards have passed. Revenue from global bandwidth agreements which provide access to a specified amount of bandwidth or capacity are accounted for accordingly as a sale of goods or rendering of services.

(m) Revenue and other income (continued)

(ii) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss on the date that the Group's or the Company's right to receive payment is established, which in the case of quoted securities is the ex-dividend date.

(iii) Rental income

Rental income is recognised in profit or loss on a straight line basis over the term of the lease. Lease incentives granted are recognised as an integral part of the total rental income, over the term of the lease. Rental income from subleased property is recognised as other income.

(iv) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues, using the effective interest method in profit or loss.

(n) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are not directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are recognised in profit or loss using the effective interest method.

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets.

The capitalisation of borrowing costs as part of the cost of a qualifying asset commences when expenditure for the asset is being incurred and activities that are necessary to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress. Capitalisation of borrowing costs is suspended or ceases when substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying asset for its intended use or sale are interrupted or completed.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

(o) Tax expense

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income.

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the financial year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous financial years.

Deferred tax is recognised using the liability method, providing for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the statement of financial position and their tax bases. Deferred tax is not recognised for the following temporary differences: the initial recognition of goodwill, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or tax loss. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to the temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

(o) Tax expense (conitnued)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax liabilities and assets, and they relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on the same taxable entity, or on different tax entities, but they intend to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis or their tax assets and liabilities will be realised simultaneously.

A deferred tax asset is recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which temporary difference can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting period and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

(p) Earnings per ordinary share

The Group presents basic and diluted earnings per share for its ordinary shares ("EPS").

Basic EPS is calculated by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the period adjusted for own shares held.

Diluted EPS is determined by adjusting the profit or loss attributable to ordinary shareholders and the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding, adjusted for own shares held, for the effects of all dilutive potential ordinary shares, which comprise convertible notes and shares granted to employees, where applicable.

(q) Operating segments

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Group's other components. All operating segment's operating results are reviewed regularly by the chief operating decision maker, which in this case is the Chief Executive Officer of the Group, to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance, and for which discrete financial information is available.

(r) Fair value measurement

The fair value of an asset or liability, except for share based payment and lease transactions, is determined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either in the principal market or in absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market.

For a non-financial asset, the fair value measurement takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest or best use.

When measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group uses observable market data wherever possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the input used in the valuation techniques as follows:

Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.

Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Level 3: unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The company recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy as of the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfers.

4.1 Impairment testing for cash-generating units containing goodwill

For the purpose of annual impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the Group's operating units which represent the lowest level within the Group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management reporting purposes.

The aggregate carrying amounts of goodwill allocated to each unit are as follows:

	Group
	2014 RM'000	2013 RM'000
International wholesale and global bandwidth business	102,101	102,101
Data centre business	111,858	111,858
	213,959	213,959

International wholesale and global bandwidth business

The recoverable amount of the international wholesale and global bandwidth business was based on its value in use. The recoverable amount of the business was determined to be higher than its carrying amount.

Value in use was determined by discounting the future cash flows expected to be generated from the continuing use of the unit. Cash flow projections used in this calculation were based on approved financial plans covering a five-year period. Cash flows beyond the five-year period were extrapolated to perpetuity using estimated growth rate and based on useful life of the asset.

Key assumptions used in the value-in-use calculation for the international wholesale and global bandwidth business during the current financial year include long term growth rate and weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") of 5.00% and 8.28% (2013: 5.00% and 9.03%) respectively.

The values assigned to the key assumptions represent management's assessment of future trends in the international wholesale and global bandwidth business and are based on both external and internal sources (historical data).

A reasonable possible change in the assumptions used will not result in significant change to the impairment conclusion.

4.1 Impairment testing for cash-generating units containing goodwill (continued)

Data centre business

The recoverable amount of the data centre business was based on its value in use. The recoverable amount of the unit was determined to be higher than its carrying amount.

Cash flow projections used in this calculation were based on financial budgets covering a five-year period. Cash flows beyond five-year period were extrapolated to perpetuity using estimated growth rate.

Key assumptions used in the value-in-use calculation for the data centre business during the current financial year include long term growth rate and weighted average cost of capital ("WACC") of 5.00% and 10.56% (2013: 5.00% and 10.92%) respectively.

The values assigned to the key assumptions represent management's assessment of future trends in the data centre business and are based on both external and internal sources (historical data).

A reasonable possible change in the assumptions used will not result in significant change to the impairment conclusion.

28. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

28.1 Financial risk management

The Group and the Company have exposure to the following risks from its use of financial instruments:

(i) Credit risk
(ii) Liquidity risk
(iii) Market risk

28.2 Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of a financial loss to the Group or the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meets its contractual obligations. The Group's exposure to credit risk arises principally from its receivables from customers (including related parties) and deposits with financial institutions. The Company's exposure to credit risk arises principally from advances to subsidiaries and deposits with financial institutions.

Receivables

Risk management objectives, policies and processes for managing the risk

Management has a credit policy in place and the exposure to credit risk is monitored on an ongoing basis. Credit evaluations are required to be performed on all new customers. Depending on the nature of the transaction, the Group may require upfront deposits as collateral.

Exposure to credit risk, credit quality and collateral

As at the end of the reporting period, the maximum exposure to credit risk arising from receivables is represented by the carrying amounts in the statements of financial position.

Management has taken reasonable steps to ensure that receivables that are neither past due nor impaired are stated at their realisable values. A significant portion of these receivables are regular customers that have been transacting with the Group. The Group manages its exposure to credit risk by the application of credit approvals, credit limits and monitoring procedures on an on-going basis. The Group also uses ageing analysis to monitor the credit quality of the receivables. For receivables from corporate, wholesale and government sectors, allowance for impairment losses will generally be provided for amounts aged more than 365 days derived based on historical payment trends and patterns unless there is objective evidence to indicate otherwise.

The exposure of credit risk for trade receivables of the Group as at the end of the reporting period by geographical region was:

	2014 RM'000	2013 RM'000
Malaysia	104,021	89,499
Outside Malaysia	42,271	29,179
	146,292	118,678

At reporting date, there were no significant concentrations of credit risk.

Impairment losses

The ageing of trade receivables (including trade amounts due from related parties and accrual of global bandwidth revenue) as at the end of the reporting period was:

2014

Past due more than 120 days	10,564	(4,737)	5,827
	123,639	(4,961)	118,678

The allowance account in respect of the trade receivables is used to record impairment losses. Unless the Group is satisfied that recovery of the amount is possible, the amount considered irrecoverable is written off against the receivable directly.

Impairment losses (continued)

The movement in the allowance for impairment losses of trade receivables (including amounts due from related parties) during the financial year were as follows:

Allowance for impairment losses in relation to outstanding balance due from related parties (other than subsidiaries of the Company) amounted to RM83,000 (2013: RM502,000).

Deposits with financial institutions and other financial assets

Risk management objectives, policies and processes for managing the risk

The Group's and the Company's cash and cash equivalents are deposited with licensed financial institutions.

Exposure to credit risk, credit quality and collateral

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents in the statement of financial position. Management does not expect any counterparty to fail to meet its obligations in respect of these deposits.

Impairment losses

As at the end of the reporting period, there was no indication that the amounts deposited with licensed financial institutions are not recoverable.

28. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (CONTINUED)

Inter-company balances

Risk management objectives, policies and processes for managing the risk

The Company provides unsecured advances to subsidiaries and monitors the results of the subsidiaries regularly.

Exposure to credit risk, credit quality and collateral

As at the end of the reporting period, the maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amounts in the statement of financial position. Advances are only provided to subsidiaries which are owned by the Company. The Company considers its subsidiaries as companies associated with lower credit risk.

Impairment losses

As at the end of the reporting period, there was no indication that the advances to the subsidiaries are not recoverable.

28.3 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due.

The Group's exposure to liquidity risk arises principally from its various payables and other applicable contractual obligations and commitments. The Group reviews and strives to maintain a prudent level of cash and cash equivalents and banking facilities to ensure working capital requirements are met.

The table below summarises the maturity profile of the Group's and the Company's financial liabilities as at the end of the reporting period based on undiscounted contractual payments:

There are no contractual interest rates for the above financial liabilities.

28.4 Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in the market prices, such as foreign exchange rates, interest rates and other prices will affect the Group's financial position or cash flows.

Currency risk

The Group is exposed to foreign currency risk on sales, purchases and borrowings that are denominated in currencies other than the functional currencies of its subsidiaries. The currency giving rise to the risk is primarily US Dollar ("USD").

Risk management objectives, policies and processes for managing the risk

The Group has a potential currency risk exposure arising from trade transactions entered with companies where the amounts are denominated in currencies other than Ringgit Malaysia. Exposure to foreign currency risk is monitored on an ongoing basis and where considered necessary, the Group may consider using financial instruments to hedge its foreign currency risk. The Company is not significantly exposed to currency risk.

Exposure to foreign currency risk

The Group's exposure to foreign currency risk, based on the carrying amounts as at the end of the reporting period was:

Trade payables	(13,380)	(19,540)
Net exposure in the statement of financial position	41,289	(22,222)

Currency risk sensitivity analysis

A 1% strengthening of the Ringgit Malaysia against the USD at the end of the reporting period would have (decreased)/increased profit or loss by the amounts shown below. This analysis is based on foreign currency exchange rate variances that the Group considered to be reasonably possible at the end of the reporting period. The analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular interest rates, remained constant and ignored any impact of forecasted sales and purchases.

The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2014, as indicated below:

	Profit or (loss)
	2014	2013
	RM'000	RM'000
Group
1% strengthening of RM against USD	(413)	222

A 1% weakening of the Ringgit Malaysia against the above currencies at the end of the reporting period would have had the equal but opposite effect on the above currencies to the amounts shown above, on the basis that all other variables remained constant.

Interest rate risk

The Group's fixed rate borrowings are exposed to a risk of change in their fair value due to changes in interest rates. The Group's variable rate borrowings are exposed to a risk of change in cash flows due to changes in interest rates. Short term receivables and payables are not significantly exposed to interest rate risk.

Exposure to interest rate risk

The interest rate profile of the Group's and the Company's significant interest-bearing financial instruments, based on carrying amounts as at the end of the reporting period was:

	Group		Company
	2014 RM'000	2013 RM'000	2014 RM'000	2013 RM'000
Fixed rate instruments
- Deposits with licensed banks	226,536	188,748	90,916	132,042
- Finance lease liabilities	(1,507)	(4,544)	**-	-
Floating rate instruments
- Term loans	(138,718)	(161,193)	**-	-

Interest rate risk sensitivity analysis:

(i) Fair value sensitivity analysis for fixed rate instruments

The Group does not account for any fixed rate financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, and the Group does not designate derivatives as hedging instruments under a fair value hedge accounting model. Therefore, a change in interest rates at the end of the reporting period would not affect profit or loss.

(ii) Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

A change of 100 basis point ("bp") in interest rates at the end of the reporting period would have increased/(decreased) profit or loss by the amounts shown below. This analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular foreign currency rates, remain constant.

Equity price risk

Equity price risk arises mainly from the Group's available-for-sale investments in quoted securities.

Risk management objectives, policies and processes for managing the risk

Investments are allowed in liquid securities that are quoted and traded on the local stock exchange on specific business case basis and upon the evaluation and approval by the Board of Directors. The existing available-for-sale investment in quoted securities represents the consideration received in prior years as a result of the Group's disposal of its 3G spectrum licence to DiGi.Com Berhad. The Group does not transact in any derivative financial instruments.

Equity price risk sensitivity analysis

A 1% increase in the quoted price of the Group's existing available-for-sale investment at the end of the reporting period would have increased equity by RM8,481,220 (2013: RM6,817,970). A 1% weakening in quoted price of the Group's existing available-for-sale investment would have had an equal but opposite effect on the Group's equity.

28.5 Fair value information

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, short-term receivables and payables reasonably approximate fair values due to the relatively short term nature of these financial instruments. Accordingly, the fair values and level of the fair value hierarchy have not been presented for these financial instruments.

It was not practicable to estimate the fair value of the Company's investment in unquoted shares due to the lack of comparable quoted prices in an active market and the fair value cannot be reliably measured.

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value and those not carried at fair value for which fair value is disclosed, together with their fair values and carrying amounts shown in the statement of financial position.

Transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 fair values

During the financial year, there has been no transfer between Level 1 and 2 fair values (2013: no transfer in either directions).

Level 3 fair value

Level 3 fair value is estimated using unobservable inputs for the financial assets and liabilities.

The following table shows the valuation techniques used in the determination of fair values within Level 3, as well as the key unobservable inputs in the valuation models.

Financial instruments not carried at fair value

Type	Description of valuation technique and inputs used
Term loans	Discounted cash flows using a rate based on the indicative current market rate of borrowing of the respective Group entities at the reporting date.

Fair value, which is determined for disclosure purposes, is calculated based on the present value of future principal and interest cash flows, discounted at the market rate of interest at the end of the reporting period.

The effective interest rates used to discount estimated cash flows, when applicable, are as follows:

	2014 %	2013 %
Term loans	2.02 - 6.01	2.02 - 5.80

29. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group's objectives when managing capital is to maintain an optimal capital structure and to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so as to maintain investor, creditor and market confidence and to sustain future development of the business. The Board of Directors monitors the return on capital, which the Group defines as results from operating activities compared against returns on average invested capital.

The Group also maintains a debt to equity ratio that complies with debt requirements required for its banking facilities.

There were no changes in the Group's approach to capital management during the financial year.
